

LAST MAN STANDING TOURNAMENTS

Player Baseball Age = May 1st cutoff.

PLAYER ELIGIBILITY RULES

Last Man Standing is an OPEN tournament, that means:

1. Non-ENYTB teams are welcome to register
2. ENYTB teams can add players to their tournament roster that were not on their regular season roster, with some limitations.

Roster MAX = 18 players

Over-aged Players (see below for pitching restrictions)

A - ENYTB Member Teams – Can only use over-aged players from their regular season roster.

B – Non-ENYTB Teams – Will be reviewed on case-by-case basis, but very limited circumstances allowed.

Player can only appear on one tournament roster per division. Players can be on multiple rosters if different divisions.

Pitching Restrictions on “Bonus players” added to roster:

- Best In Class Divisions: All players on roster are eligible to pitch unless they violate age limits (see below)
- AAA, AA, and A Divisions: ENYTB teams can only declare TWO of their bonus players (non-regular season roster player, added for tournament only) as “Pitcher Eligible”. This must be denoted on the online tournament roster.

Pitching Restrictions – Over-Aged Players

- 9/10U Division – Players that are baseball age 11 cannot pitch;
- 11/12U Division – Players that are baseball age 13 cannot pitch;
- 13/14U Division - Players that are baseball age 15 CANNOT pitch against pure 13U teams. They CAN pitch against 13+, 14, 14+ teams.
- 15U & older – no restrictions on over-age players pitching